The meeting of the commitand according to the custom of having a Wash ington man among the list Mr. Schmidt will probably be the one chosen, as he has the in dorsement of the Columbia and Potomac Ath letic clubs and the Analostan Boat Club.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE GRUENFELDS' CONCERT .- A large and ertainly an appreciative audience assembled in the Universalist Church Saturday night on the occasion of the first appearance in this city the praise that had been given in other cities and proved himself a master of his particular instrument. Albert is a planist of a high order, and in his selections showed the wide range of his study and his intelligent comprehension of different composers. His execution is clean and facile and the earnestness of his work compels the complete attention of his audience. His own compositions proved his musicianly instinct and culture and stamps him as an artist of high rank. Heinric truenfeld is a 'cellist of excellent ability and his work elicited pronounced applause. The whole concert was exceedingly of the brothers Gruenfeld. Each fully justified applause. The whole concert was exceedingly enjoyable and it is to be hoped that these two musicians may soon be heard again in Washington.

enjoyable and it is to be hoped that these two musicians may soon be heard again in Washington.

Last Night's Conert.—The attendance at Albaugh's Opera House last night was by no means commensurate with the excellence of the entertainment provided. The chief attraction was Miss Maud Powell, who has now taken a place in the front rank of solo violinists. This young woman deserves the highest praise for the progress she has made in her art. To a natural musical intelligence she hasadded years of lard study and now she is resping the reward of her labor in the high reputation that her work is bringing to her. Her playing last night was admirable in every respect. Her selections were such as to show her versatility and her facility of execution and each of her numbers was encored. The New York Symphony Club proved to be an organization of good musicians, whose work both as individuals and in the commission will begin its executive gregational Church. All members of the commission of the war and all other friends of the army and navy are invited to attend the meetings, which will probably continue through Tuesday and Wednesday. CHRISTMAS TREE Wednesday and Thursday of this week at Great China and Japan Tea Co., the missing singer. Miss Toulmine is an accomplished quarpist and the others acquitted themselves creditably.

Columbia Athletic Exhibition

The athletic exhibition given in the gym-nasium of the Columbia Athletic Club Saturday was as usual an interesting affair and attracted a large crowd. The exhibition began with ladder exercise by the pyramid class. George E. French and Bob Elder did some clever sparring. Prof. Crossley, Mooney and Sewell gave a brother acrobatic act. John T. Mitchell, jr., and Harry Blunt wrestled Græco-Mitchell, jr., and Harry Blunt wrestled Græco-Roman stylc, the latter getting a fall to his credit in three bouts. Prof. Crossley, Sewell and members of the junior class performed on the flying rings, and then followed horse vault-ing by the juniors. Prof. Murphy and Deshon gave a sparring exhibition. The performance wound up with a boxing bout between Carter and Von Lingren. Jack Rainier was the mas-ter of ceremonies.
